

News Release

from Barbara J. Fiala, Broome County Executive

For Immediate Release
May 7, 2010

For more information contact:
James F. May – 607-778-2056

Police Week Displays May 7 & 8, 2010

Southern Tier Law Enforcement Memorial Association Mall Events

Patrolman Paul Burnett, President of the Southern Tier Law Enforcement Association, announces that the following events will be taking place at the Oakdale Mall, Johnson City, New York on Friday and Saturday, May 7 & 8, as part of the Police Week activities. Local police agencies will be displaying their vehicles and officers will be available for information. These special events are available for the public. Police Week concludes at 9:00 PM, Saturday May 8, 2010.

Fallen Officers Display – Johnson City PD – A video presentation remembering Police Officers from Zone 6/ Troop C who have died in the line of duty. Daily presentations from 9:00 AM to 9:00 PM. Center Court.

Roll Over Display – New York State Police – A seat belt presentation to encourage the occupant use of seat belts. Daily presentations from 9:00 AM to 9:00 PM. South Court.

Finger Printing /Photographing Children –Broome County Sheriff Office - Child identification program, Saturday, May 8 from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM. South Court

Child Safety Seat Inspection – New York State Police – Saturday, May 8, from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM, Reynolds Road Parking Lot.

Bomb Squad –Endicott PD – Robot demonstration of building search and suspect device removal. Saturday, May 8, from 1:00 PM to 3:00 PM Center Court

K-9 Demo – Binghamton PD – Canine search and command demonstration. Saturday, May 8, at 11:00 AM & 4:00 PM. Center Court